

What the poeple say ...and heare...and write

Very deep and emotional... great sounding tune. Inspiring harmony, ectremely well played. I can really feel it....Beatifull intro. Some cool chords here. Sounds great too. I like the harmonies you use here. Awesome work Dude!..."I used to paint pictures with a brush, now I paint them with music." Me too! Me too! Great voice, great chords you`re using. What a great song, just my cup of tea. Excellent excellent excellent!! 10 stars!. ... it's in my playlist. ...Very clear and warm guitarplay - (with much "flesh") and heart.

Thanks for the inspiration and music! Keep up the great music. You are a great talent. „Moments in Camelot“ - And I stand in the kings court watching, as the dancers try their very best to entertain. For the king and his lady were mesmerized by the beauty, they saw all too well. It's the distant lands calling, Peace for all the land. The lady she is watching, as Camelot comes to her distant view. She gasps at the very beauty of it all and hopes to see this through. It's the beauty of Camelot and the love we share, we two. This appeals to my whimsical romantic side. would be great soundtrack music for many movie types. I love it! Just a poem I thought of listening to this beautiful song. ...nice & relaxing. It reminds me of sitting on your front porch or by a window watching and listening to the rain fall. Good job. ...It's beautiful and kind of music reminesent of the old time west. Well done. I love the acoutics and dynamics to it too.

A gentle touch is what you give us. Smooth and fragile you handle your instrument in order to give us what we need. A piece of mind. ...Well performed indeed! I guess you're well awered of how to write songs from the heart. Lovely!

Your new CD arrived on Saturday and of course I had to listen to it without delay. I must say, I was more than impressed. It is absolutely super !! You took me on a trip to a lot of familiar places ...from South Africa to Ireland...I am a great lover of music and my favourite instruments are the string instruments e.g. violin / guitar so your CD was right up my street. I am honoured to see my name on the cover - thank you...I wish you all the luck in the world and may this be the beginning of an enjoyable and long path to further success.
